

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 38

Monday, April 28, 2014

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 10:00 a.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by Chaplain Patricia Febro Warner of Cocoa Beach, upon invitation of Rep. Crisafulli:

Our Heavenly Father, we come this day with our hearts set on You and Your word, which declares, "Commit to the Lord whatever you do and He will establish your plans." Abide in this House as we represent the various coasts of the great state of Florida. From the Emerald Coast, to the Gulf Coast, the Space Coast, to the Florida Keys, we have assembled for the main objective of going about the business of our great state. In our intended mission to govern, help us to uphold the ideals that we are called to embrace—honesty, integrity, and boldness. We declare to work diligently to bring about passage of those bills that are designed to be for our good and we commit to work tirelessly to defeat schemes that are destructive and detrimental to our way of life. Help us to be clear and concise on where we stand.

Lord, as we represent the people of Florida, help us to have discernment and look beyond legislative vexations with caring hearts. Impart to us the realization of the personal and social obstacles of the day. Remind us that simple kindness is a language that the deaf can hear and the blind can see. We pause now to consider our military and those who are such noble defenders of America. Keep them safe by night and day, wherever they may be, as we contemplate and are eternally grateful for those who have paid the ultimate sacrifice. May we determine to be champions for justice and today, as botherations beset us, we can agree on this: God, with urgency, bless the United States of America as we pray in your excellent name. Amen and Shalom.

494.0038 ~~Loan origination and~~ Mortgage broker fees and disclosures.—

(1) A loan origination fee may not be paid except pursuant to a written mortgage broker agreement between the mortgage broker and the borrower which is signed and dated by the principal loan originator or branch manager, and the borrower. The unique registry identifier of each loan originator responsible for providing loan originator services must be printed on the mortgage broker agreement.

(a) The written mortgage broker agreement must describe the services to be provided by the mortgage broker and specify the amount and terms of the loan origination fee that the mortgage broker is to receive.

1. Except for application and third-party fees, all fees received by a mortgage broker from a borrower must be identified as a loan origination fee.

2. All fees on the mortgage broker agreement must be disclosed in dollar amounts.

3. All loan origination fees must be paid to a mortgage broker.

(b) The agreement must be executed within 3 business days after a mortgage loan application is accepted if the borrower is present when the mortgage loan application is accepted. If the borrower is not present, the licensee shall forward the agreement to the borrower within 3 business days after the licensee's acceptance of the application and the licensee bears the burden of proving that the borrower received and approved the agreement.

(2) If the mortgage broker is to receive any payment of any kind from the mortgage lender, the maximum total dollar amount of the payment must be disclosed to the borrower in the written mortgage broker agreement as described in paragraph (1)(a). The commission may prescribe by rule an acceptable form for disclosure of brokerage fees received from the lender. The agreement must state the nature of the relationship with the lender, describe how compensation is paid by the lender, and describe how the mortgage interest rate affects the compensation paid to the mortgage broker.

(a) The exact amount of any payment of any kind by the lender to the mortgage broker must be disclosed in writing to the borrower within 3 business days after the mortgage broker is made aware of the exact amount of the payment from the lender but not less than 3 business days before the execution of the closing or settlement statement. The licensee bears the burden of proving such notification was provided to the borrower. Notification is waived if the exact amount of the payment is accurately disclosed in the written mortgage broker agreement.

(b) The commission may prescribe by rule the form of disclosure of brokerage fees.

(3) At the time a written mortgage broker agreement is signed by the borrower or forwarded to the borrower for signature, or at the time the mortgage broker business accepts an application fee, credit report fee, property appraisal fee, or any other third-party fee, but at least 3 business days before execution of the closing or settlement statement, the mortgage broker shall disclose in writing to any applicant for a mortgage loan the following information:

(a) That the mortgage broker may not make mortgage loans or commitments. The mortgage broker may make a commitment and may furnish a lock-in of the rate and program on behalf of the lender if the mortgage broker has obtained a written commitment or lock-in for the loan from the lender on behalf of the borrower for the loan. The commitment must be in the same form and substance as issued by the lender.

(b) That the mortgage broker cannot guarantee acceptance into any particular loan program or promise any specific loan terms or conditions.

(c) A good faith estimate that discloses settlement charges and loan terms.

1. Any amount collected in excess of the actual cost shall be returned within 60 days after rejection, withdrawal, or closing.

2. At the time a good faith estimate is provided to the borrower, the loan originator must identify in writing an itemized list that provides the recipient of all payments charged the borrower, which, except for all fees to be received by the mortgage broker, may be disclosed in generic terms, such as, but not limited to, paid to lender, appraiser, officials, title company, or any other third-party service provider. This requirement does not supplant or is not a substitute for the written mortgage broker agreement described in subsection (1). The disclosure required under this subparagraph must be signed and dated by the borrower.

(4) The disclosures required by this subsection must be furnished in writing at the time an adjustable rate mortgage loan is offered to the borrower and whenever the terms of the adjustable rate mortgage loan offered materially change prior to closing. The mortgage broker shall furnish the disclosures relating to adjustable rate mortgages in a format prescribed by ss. 226.18 and 226.19 of Regulation Z of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, as amended; its commentary, as amended; and the federal Truth in Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. ss. 1601 et seq., as amended; together with the Consumer Handbook on Adjustable Rate Mortgages, as amended; published by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Home Loan Bank Board. The licensee bears the burden of proving such disclosures were provided to the borrower.

(5) If the mortgage broker agreement includes a nonrefundable application fee, the following requirements are applicable:

(a) The amount of the application fee, which must be clearly denominated as such, must be clearly disclosed.

(b) The specific services that will be performed in consideration for the application fee must be disclosed.

(c) The application fee must be reasonably related to the services to be performed and may not be based upon a percentage of the principal amount of the loan or the amount financed.

(6) A mortgage broker may not accept any fee in connection with a mortgage loan other than an application fee, credit report fee, property appraisal fee, or other third party fee before obtaining a written commitment from a qualified lender.

(1)(7) Any third-party fee entrusted to a mortgage broker must immediately, upon receipt, be placed into a segregated account with a financial institution located in the state the accounts of which are insured by the Federal Government. Such funds shall be held in trust for the payor and shall be kept in the account until disbursement. Such funds may be placed in one account if adequate accounting measures are taken to identify the source of the funds.

~~(2)(8)~~ A mortgage broker may not pay a commission to any person not licensed pursuant to this chapter.

~~(3)(9)~~ This section does not prohibit a mortgage broker from offering products and services, in addition to those offered in conjunction with the loan origination process, for a fee or commission.

Section 43. Subsections (2) and (3) of section 494.004, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

494.004 Requirements of licensees.—

~~(2) In every mortgage loan transaction, each licensee under this part must notify a borrower of any material changes in the terms of a mortgage loan previously offered to the borrower within 3 business days after being made aware of such changes by the mortgage lender but at least 3 business days before the signing of the settlement or closing statement. The licensee bears the burden of proving such notification was provided and accepted by the borrower. A borrower may waive the right to receive notice of a material change if the borrower determines that the extension of credit is needed to meet a bona fide personal financial emergency and the right to receive notice would delay the closing of the mortgage loan. The imminent sale of the borrower's home at foreclosure during the 3-day period before the signing of the settlement or closing statement is an example of a bona fide personal financial emergency. In order to waive the borrower's right to receive notice, the borrower must provide the licensee with a dated written statement that describes the personal financial emergency, waives the right to receive the notice, bears the borrower's signature, and is not on a printed form prepared by the licensee for the purpose of such a waiver.~~

~~(2)(3)~~ Each mortgage broker shall submit to the registry reports of condition, which must be in such form and shall contain such information as the registry may require. The commission may adopt rules prescribing the time by which a mortgage broker must file a report of condition. For purposes of this section, the report of condition is synonymous with the registry's Mortgage Call Report.

Section 44. Subsection (3) of section 494.0042, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

494.0042 Loan origination fees.—

(3) At the time of accepting a mortgage loan application, a mortgage broker may receive from the borrower a nonrefundable application fee. If the mortgage loan is funded, the nonrefundable application fee shall be credited against the amount owed as a result of the loan being funded. A person may not receive any form of compensation for acting as a loan originator other than a nonrefundable application fee, a fee based on the mortgage amount being funded, ~~or a fee which complies with s. 494.00421.~~

Section 45. Section 494.00421, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Section 46. Paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 494.00611, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

494.00611 Mortgage lender license.—

(2) In order to apply for a mortgage lender license, an applicant must:

(b) Designate a qualified principal loan originator who meets the requirements of s. 494.00665 ~~494.0035~~ on the application form.

Section 47. Subsection (3) is added to section 494.00612, Florida Statutes, to read:

494.00612 Mortgage lender license renewal.—

(3) If a licensed mortgage lender fails to meet the requirements of this section for annual license renewal on or before December 31 but meets such requirements before March 1, the mortgage lender's license status shall be changed to "failed to renew" pending review and renewal by the office. A nonrefundable reinstatement fee of $475 shall be charged in addition to registry fees. The license status shall not be changed until the requirements of this section are met and all fees are paid. If the licensee fails to meet the requirements of this section and pay all required fees before March 1, such license is expired and such mortgage lender must apply for a new mortgage lender license under s. 494.00611.

Section 48. Subsection (3) of section 494.0066, Florida Statutes, is amended, and subsections (4) and (5) are added to that section, to read:

494.0066 Branch offices.—

(3) A branch office license must be renewed at the time of renewing the mortgage lender license. A nonrefundable fee of $225 per branch office must be submitted at the time of renewal. To renew a branch office license, a mortgage lender must:

(a) Submit a completed license renewal form as prescribed by commission rule.

(b) Submit a nonrefundable renewal fee.

(c) Submit any additional information or documentation requested by the office and required by rule concerning the licensee. Additional information may include documents that may provide the office with the appropriate information to determine eligibility for license renewal.

(4) The office may not renew a branch office license unless the branch office continues to meet the minimum requirements for initial licensure under this section and adopted rule.

(5) If a licensed branch office fails to meet the requirements of this section for annual license renewal on or before December 31 but meets such requirements before March 1, the branch office's license status shall be changed to "failed to renew" pending review and renewal by the office. A nonrefundable reinstatement fee of $225 shall be charged in addition to registry fees. The license status shall not be changed until the requirements of this section are met and all fees are paid. If the licensee fails to meet the requirements of this section and pay all required fees before March 1, such license is expired and such branch office must apply for a new mortgage lender branch office license under this section.

Section 49. Subsections (8) through (13) of section 494.0067, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

494.0067 Requirements of mortgage lenders.—

~~(8) Each mortgage lender shall provide an applicant for a mortgage loan a good faith estimate of the costs the applicant can reasonably expect to pay in obtaining a mortgage loan. The good faith estimate of costs must be mailed or delivered to the applicant within 3 business days after the licensee receives a written loan application from the applicant. The estimate of costs may be provided to the applicant by a person other than the licensee making the loan. The good faith estimate must identify the recipient of all payments charged to the borrower and, except for all fees to be received by the mortgage broker and the mortgage lender, may be disclosed in generic terms, such as, but not limited to, paid to appraiser, officials, title company, or any other third-party service provider. The licensee bears the burden of proving such disclosures were provided to the borrower. The commission may adopt rules that set forth the disclosure requirements of this section.~~

~~(9) The disclosures in this subsection must be furnished in writing at the time an adjustable rate mortgage loan is offered to the borrower and whenever the terms of the adjustable rate mortgage loan offered have a material change prior to closing. The lender shall furnish the disclosures relating to adjustable rate mortgages in a format prescribed by ss. 226.18 and 226.19 of Regulation Z of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, as amended; its commentary, as amended; and the Federal Truth in Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. ss. 1601 et seq., as amended; together with the Consumer Handbook on Adjustable Rate Mortgages, as amended; published by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Home Loan Bank Board. The licensee bears the burden of proving such disclosures were provided to the borrower.~~

~~(10) In every mortgage loan transaction, each mortgage lender shall notify a borrower of any material changes in the terms of a mortgage loan previously offered to the borrower within 3 business days after being made aware of such changes by the lender but at least 3 business days before signing the settlement or closing statement. The licensee bears the burden of proving such notification was provided and accepted by the borrower. A borrower may waive the right to receive notice of a material change if the borrower determines that the extension of credit is needed to meet a bona fide personal financial emergency and the right to receive notice would delay the closing of the mortgage loan. The imminent sale of the borrower's home at foreclosure during the 3-day period before the signing of the settlement or closing statement constitutes an example of a bona fide personal financial emergency. In order to waive the borrower's right to receive notice, the borrower must provide the licensee with a dated written statement that describes the personal financial emergency, waives the right to receive the notice, bears the~~ borrower's signature, and is not on a printed form prepared by the licensee for the purpose of such a waiver.

~~(8)(14)~~ A mortgage lender may close loans in its own name but may not service the loan for more than 6 4 months unless the lender has a servicing endorsement. Only a mortgage lender who continuously maintains a net worth of at least $250,000 may obtain a servicing endorsement.

~~(9)(12)~~ A mortgage lender must report to the office the failure to meet the applicable net worth requirements of s. 494.00611 within 2 days after the mortgage lender's knowledge of such failure or after the mortgage lender should have known of such failure.

~~(10)(13)~~ Each mortgage lender shall submit to the registry reports of condition which are in a form and which contain such information as the registry may require. The commission may adopt rules prescribing the time by which a mortgage lender must file a report of condition. For purposes of this section, the report of condition is synonymous with the registry's Mortgage Call Report.

Section 50. Section 494.0068, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Section 51. Paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of subsection (1) of section 494.007, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

494.007 Commitment process.—

(1) If a commitment is issued, the mortgage lender shall disclose in writing:

(c) If the interest rate or other terms are subject to change before expiration of the commitment:
